One of Switzerland's most scenic rail journeys, the Glacier Express' reputation no doubt precedes it. Connecting Zermatt, nestled peacefully in the shadow of the Matterhorn, and resort-town-extraordinaire St. Moritz, the train rolls at a remarkable 24 miles per hour, giving you ample time to soak up the views from the panoramic windows. Following the relaunch of the Excellence Class cars in 2019, the newly-renovated first and standard-class panoramic cars also leave nothing to be desired.

5 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT THE GLACIER EXPRESS

Railbookers offers dozens of itineraries that feature this unforgettable journey and can easily help you add it to your dream European independent train vacation. Here are five things you should know about the Glacier Express train:

1. THE GLACIER EXPRESS IS ONE OF THE WORLD'S MOST SCENIC TRAIN JOURNEYS

The Glacier Express is often referred to as the "slowest express train in the world," and for good reason. The train takes around eight hours to travel from Zermatt to St. Moritz, covering a distance of 180 miles. But the leisurely pace is part of the charm, as it allows you to take in the stunning scenery at a relaxed pace. The train passes through 91 tunnels and over 291 bridges, as it winds its way through the Swiss Alps, offering views of snow-capped peaks, deep valleys, and picturesque villages along the way.

2. THE TRAIN OFFERS LUXURIOUS COMFORT AND DINING OPTIONS

Despite its leisurely pace, the Glacier Express offers luxurious comfort and dining options. The train features spacious, comfortable seats with large windows that provide unparalleled views of the passing scenery. There are also first-class compartments available, which offer even more space and comfort. The dining car serves up delicious Swiss cuisine, including local specialties like raclette and fondue, as well as a selection of fine wines.

3. THE GLACIER EXPRESS IS PERFECT IN THE SUMMER AND WINTER

While the train journey is undoubtedly most popular during the summer months, when the scenery is at its most vibrant, it's also a great option for winter travel. During the winter months, the snow-covered landscapes and cozy interiors of the train make for a truly magical experience. In fact, many people consider winter the best time to take the Glacier Express, as the snow adds an extra layer of magic to the journey.

4. THE JOURNEY CAN BE CUSTOMIZED TO SUIT YOUR NEEDS

The Glacier Express journey can be customized to suit your needs, with a range of different options available. You can choose to travel in first or standard class, or even splurge for the unparalleled Excellence Class. You can also choose to break up the journey and spend a night in one of the picturesque villages along the way, allowing you to explore the local area in more depth.

5. THERE ARE PLENTY OF OTHER ATTRACTIONS TO EXPLORE ALONG THE WAY

The train passes through a number of charming Swiss villages, including Zermatt, Brig, Andermatt, and St. Moritz, each with its own unique character and attractions. There are also plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities, as well as cultural attractions like museums and historic churches.
