THE AMERICAN STATEROOM

Get More with American

The award-winning American Cruise Lines staterooms are the most spacious in river cruising globally. Every room is a comfortable sanctuary, with room to move, unpack, and enjoy. Real private balconies are furnished with a table and chairs, and experienced river cruisers appreciate details like full-size dressers and desks with drawers deep enough to hold all your belongings.

Our standard staterooms are 50% larger than those of our global competitors, and our newest ships feature the largest river suites in the world. The reason is simple: while most riverboats are just 39 feet wide, ours are 60 feet wide, giving us far more space for hotel-style bathrooms and generous seating areas. Whereas some river cruise lines settle for a narrow shelf and stool, American Cruise Lines delivers full-size furniture, including a spacious desk and comfortable chair.
