THE ARCTIC & ANTARCTICA | 2027-28

POSEIDON EXPEDITIONS

POLAR REGIONS

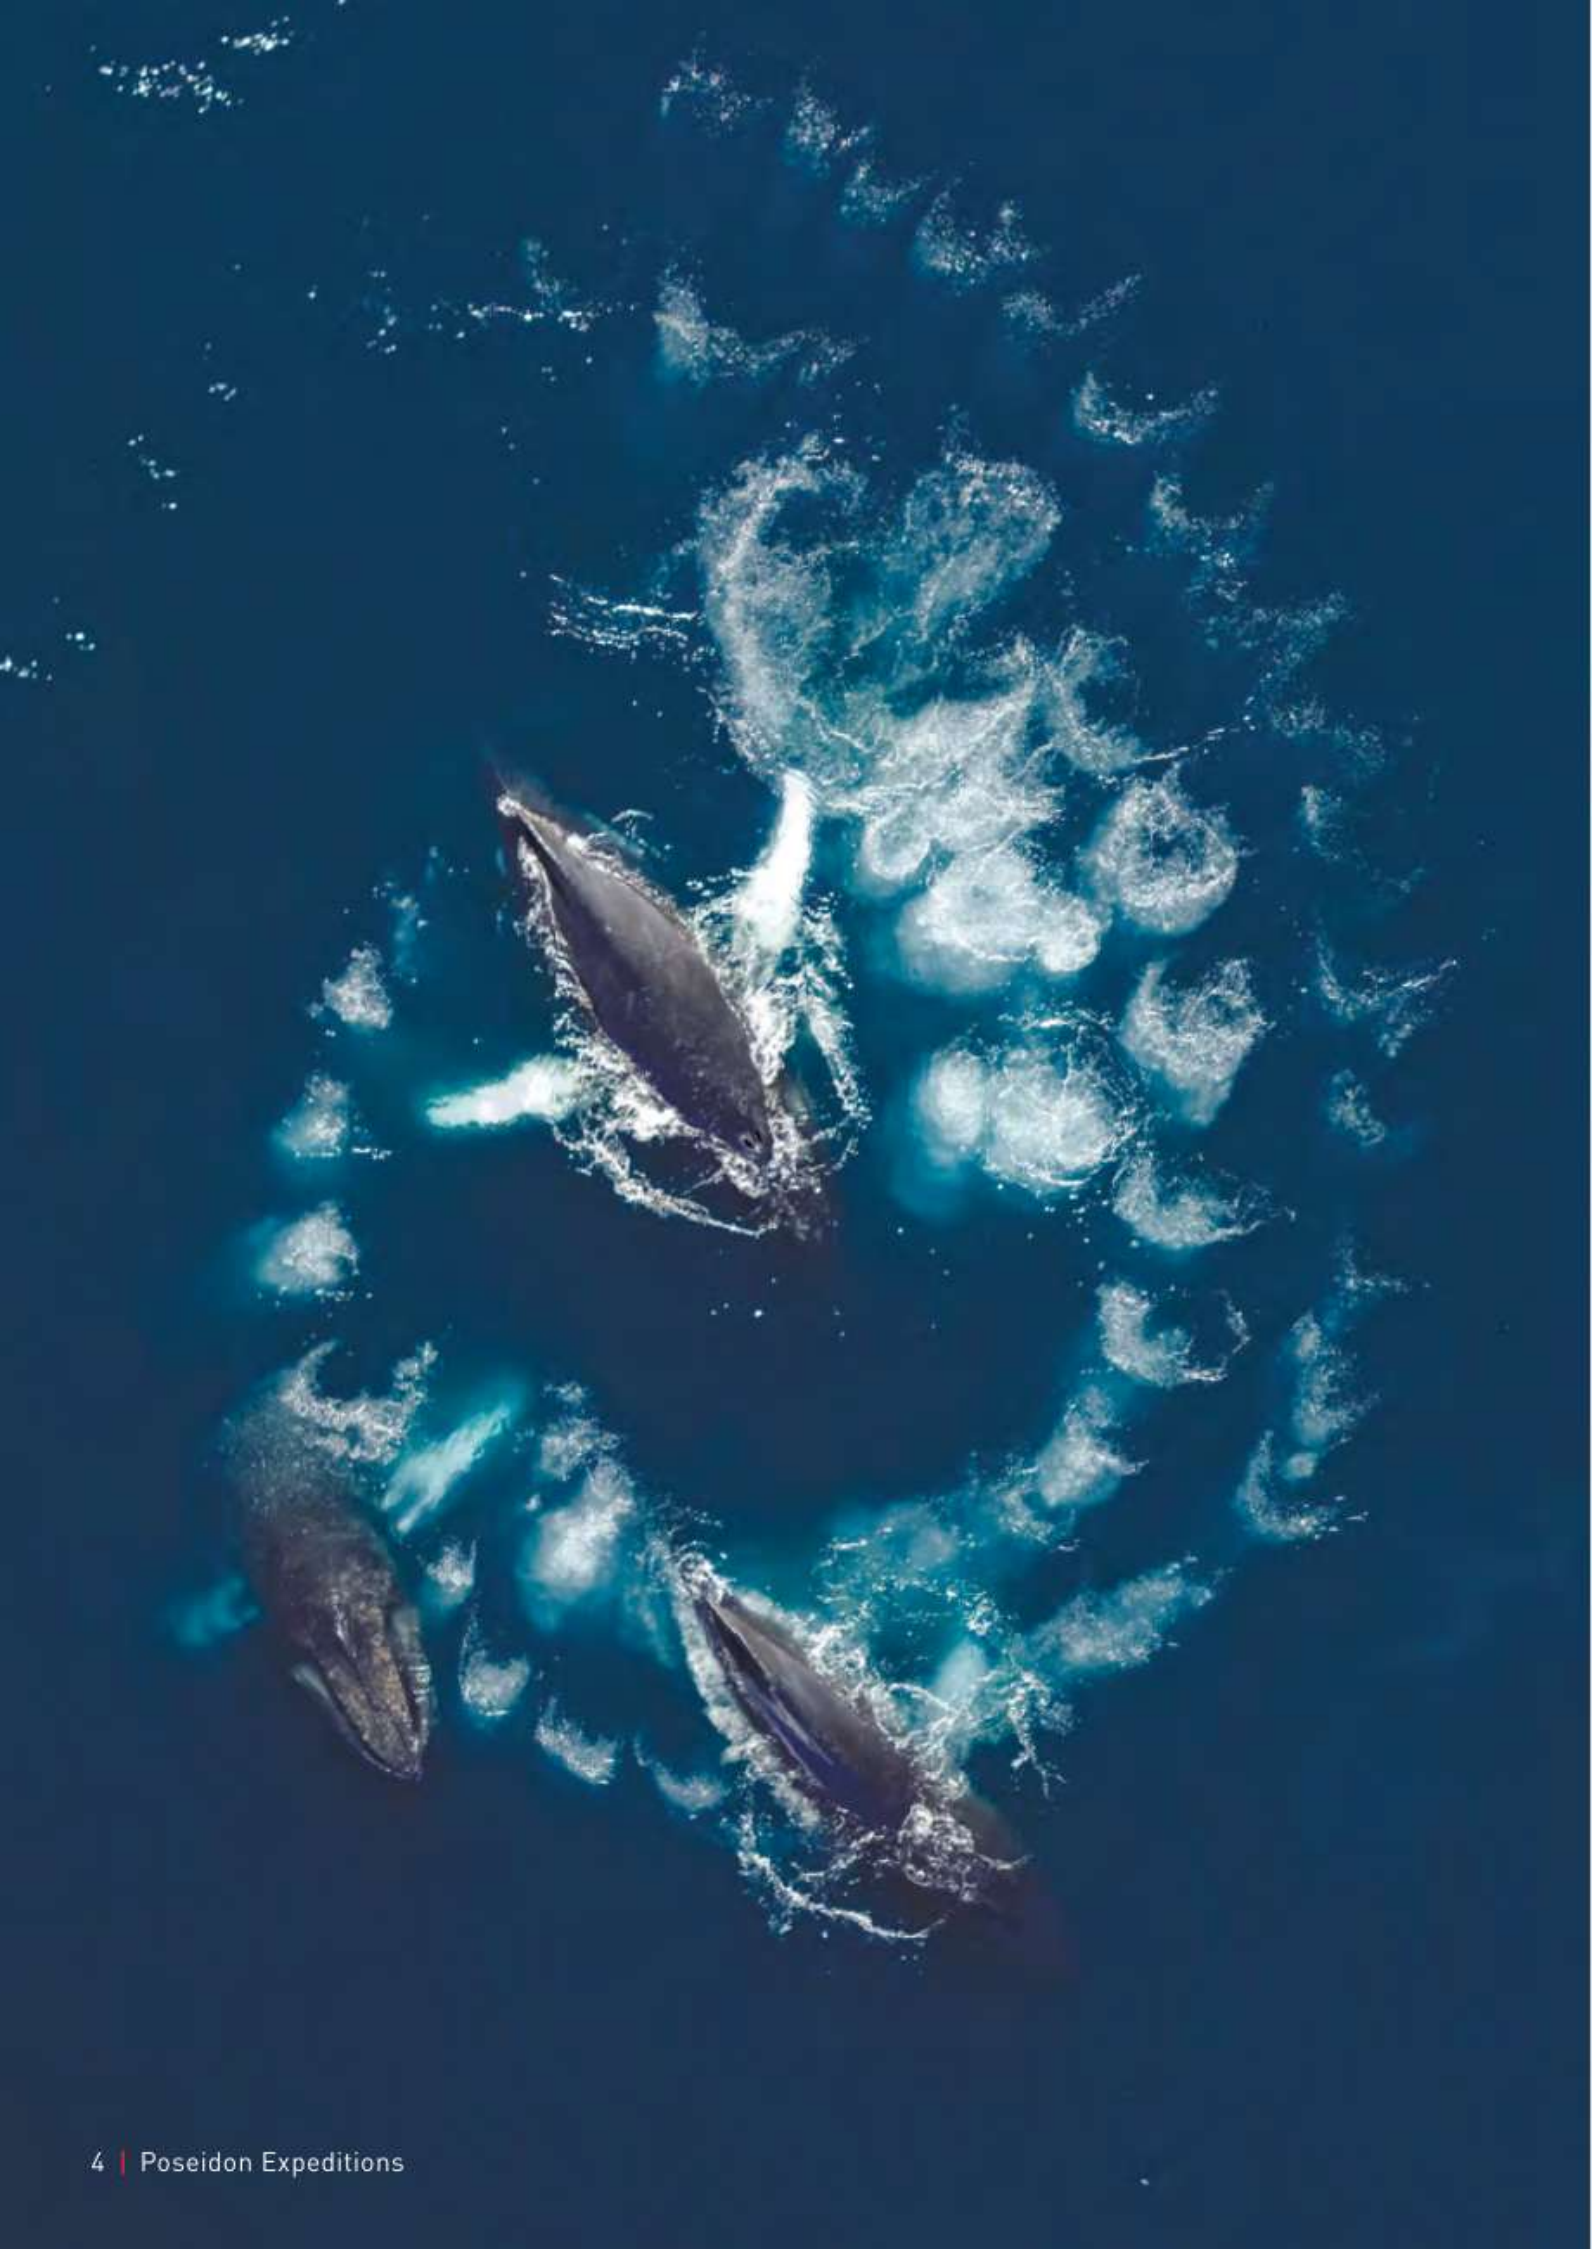

Dear Traveler,

Every year, when our ship returns from her long journeys north and south, she brings back countless stories — not just from the places we visit, but from the people who travel with us. Each season has unique moments: Someone proposed on the deck in Antarctica. Someone dared to take their first polar plunge. Someone saw the Northern Lights for the very first time. These moments remind us why we do what we do. And now, with this new catalog in your hands, we're excited to begin writing the next chapter together.

Inside, you'll discover voyages that reflect our deepest passion for discovery. Some routes are longtime favorites; others are making a long-awaited return. Aboard a small ship, every journey feels more personal — with more time ashore, a friendly atmosphere, and a deeper immersion in the polar world. Whether you're drifting among icebergs in the Southern Ocean, stepping onto the Arctic tundra in summer bloom, or exploring the coasts of Iceland and the British Isles, each itinerary has been crafted with care — and with curiosity at its heart.

I hope the pages ahead spark your imagination and help you find the adventure that speaks to you. We look forward to the possibility of welcoming you aboard.

In the Spirit of Adventure: Polar Expedition Cruising

We started Poseidon Expeditions in 1999 with the simple belief that expedition cruising aboard small ships is the best way to see the polar regions. 28 years later, over 26,000 passengers agree: Our unique style of travel offers you a genuine adventure served with healthy measures of education and relaxation. Your polar cruise experience on our small ship will be deeply personal and immensely satisfying.

Why travel with Poseidon Expeditions?

Small ship – big advantage

With a maximum capacity of just 114 passengers, we usually operate with 100 guests off the ship. It maximizes our travelers' time ashore because there is no need for splitting passengers into groups for landing rotations, as required on larger ships.

28 years of polar cruising

28 years

Polar cruising is our passion and expertise. We've gained tremendous experience building a strong team of enthusiastic polar professionals who are all experts in their field. Each expedition cruise is a thoughtfully crafted voyage.

Expedition team excellence

Our guests continually rate our expedition team as top-notch, highlighting their expertise in their field, knowledge, professionalism, and commitment to making each expedition cruise truly unforgettable and life-changing.

Longer landings

2,5 hours

With around 100 guests on board, our small group size allows for longer, more immersive landings — giving each guest up to 2.5 hours of off-ship exploration per activity — no rotations, just more time to explore and enjoy.

A real polar expedition

Experience active exploration through a variety of activities. Weather permitting, we schedule several excursions per day and offer optional kayaking and, in Antarctica, camping. Enrich your polar knowledge in an engaging and interactive way through Poseidon's edutainment program.

Safety and comfort

Expedition cruising with Poseidon ensures active, yet safe polar exploration. Our highly trained team of professionals will help you navigate into the polar worlds in maximum possible comfort and safety.

Environmental responsibility

As a member of leading associations dedicated to protecting the Arctic and Antarctica, we take an active approach with projects such as Clean Up Svalbard, strict leave-no-waste policies, and a reduction of our footprint.

Poseidon Expeditions is named World's Leading Polar Expedition Operator 2021

Poseidon Expeditions is named Best Polar Expedition Cruise Operator at the 2022 International Travel Awards

Poseidon Expeditions is named Best Polar Expedition Cruise Operator at the 2023 International Travel Awards

Poseidon Expeditions is named Best Polar Expedition Cruise Operator at the 2024 International Travel Awards

Poseidon Expeditions is named Best Polar Expedition Cruise Operator at the 2025 International Travel Awards

Environmental Promise

We pledge our commitment to the Arctic and Antarctic conservation and our support for related scientific research while striving to leave a smaller footprint when we travel. With various measures for environmental protection and sustainable expedition cruising, we are able to contribute to the preservation of the polar regions, which is a great responsibility and honor.

Small Ship – Smaller Footprint

Waste management

The Sea Spirit utilizes a grinding machine to reduce the volume of waste, which is later separated and discharged or unloaded ashore according to local and international regulations.

Energy management

The Sea Spirit has a comprehensive energy management plan compliant with international marine pollution prevention regulations, which are designed to improve energy efficiency of shipboard operations, reduce CO2 emissions from the ship, and minimize energy waste.

Day-to-day initiatives

We provide every passenger with a reusable water bottle; single-use plastic bottles and containers are eliminated. On board the Sea Spirit, chefs adhere to guidelines recommended by the Marine Stewardship Council for sustainability with regard to the types of seafood served.

Water management

The wastewater produced on board the Sea Spirit is treated using an internationally certified and approved sewage treatment system, which utilizes a chemical chlorination and dechlorination process, producing a clean and safe effluent.

Safe employment practices & standards

Our Sea Spirit crew return year after year for employment because the ship is an excellent place to work. The ship is regularly checked by inspectors from the International Transport Workers' Federation (ITF), and complies with all requirements for crew employment.

MEMBERSHIPS

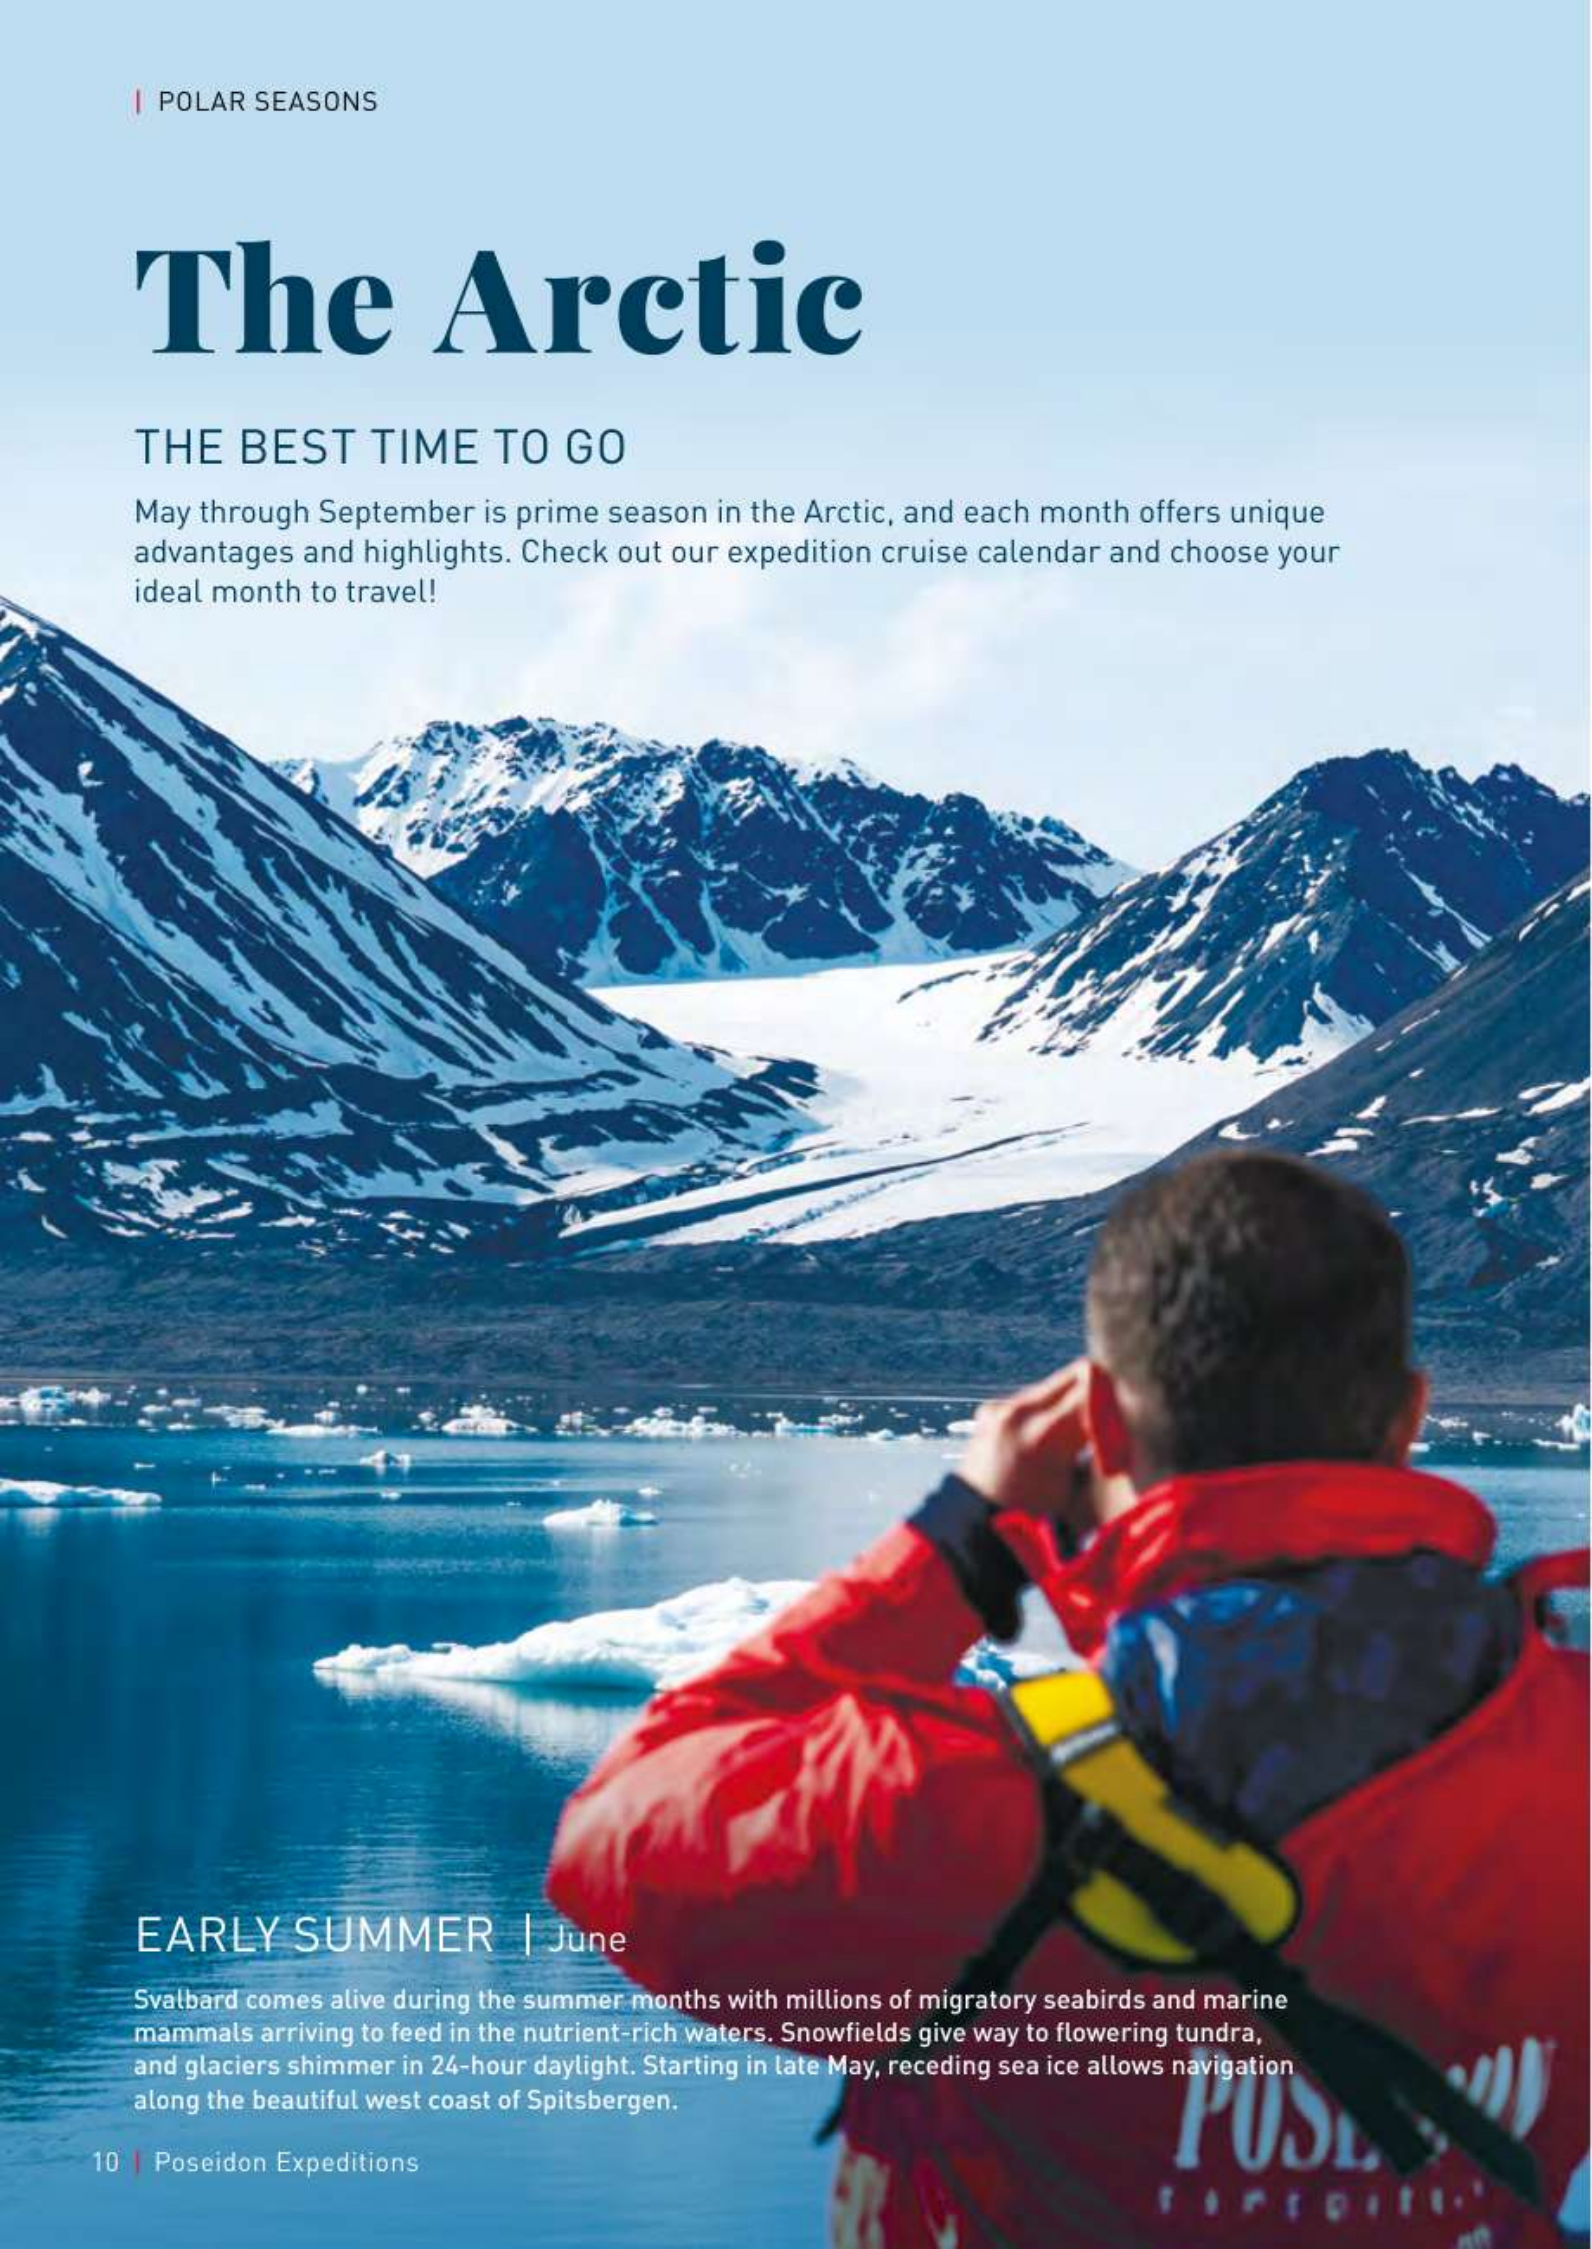

Poseidon Expeditions is a member in good standing of both the Association of Arctic Expedition Cruise Operators (AECO) and the International Association of Antarctica Tour Operators (IAATO).

We're a proud contributor to the Clean Up Svalbard Program, as well as several of our own environmental initiatives.

The Arctic

THE BEST TIME TO GO

May through September is prime season in the Arctic, and each month offers unique advantages and highlights. Check out our expedition cruise calendar and choose your ideal month to travel!

EARLY SUMMER | June

Svalbard comes alive during the summer months with millions of migratory seabirds and marine mammals arriving to feed in the nutrient-rich waters. Snowfields give way to flowering tundra, and glaciers shimmer in 24-hour daylight. Starting in late May, receding sea ice allows navigation along the beautiful west coast of Spitsbergen.

HIGH SUMMER | July - August

Discover Svalbard in July and relish the advantages of an Arctic summer, featuring excellent weather and abundant wildlife. In mid-August, seize the perfect opportunity to explore Northeast Greenland National Park (the largest in the world) and a spectacular area of fjords and wildlife such as reindeer, arctic fox, muskox, seals, whales, and birdlife.

LATE SUMMER | September

In September, as Arctic nights become sufficiently dark, the magnificent fjords of East Greenland become the ideal place to watch mesmerizing northern lights displays. Days are still long enough to explore an outsized landscape of polychromatic mountains, blue glaciers, shining white icebergs, and tundra valleys awash in autumn colors.

Antarctica

THE BEST TIME TO GO

For visitors, travel to Antarctica and the Southern Ocean is best during the austral summer, between the months of October and March. The weather is ideal and wildlife is at its most active. Each month is unique and will surprise you in its offerings, allowing you to choose the time that best suits your wishes. We've created a special calendar with the highlights of each season.

EARLY SUMMER | October - November

Snow and ice are plentiful in October and November as millions of ocean-going penguins and seabirds return to Antarctica at the start of their breeding season. Courtship rituals take place and eggs are laid. In South Georgia, gigantic elephant seal bulls battle ferociously for control of harems on the beaches. Newborn pups are soon to follow.

HIGH SUMMER | December - January

These months deliver the warmest weather, nearly continuous daylight, and frenetic wildlife activity. This is the best time to observe fluffy penguin chicks in their nests. Great numbers of whales arrive in Antarctica to begin non-stop feeding on swarms of krill. The beaches of South Georgia are jam-packed with king penguins and fur seals.

LATE SUMMER | February - March

These are the prime months for viewing maturing penguin youngsters and energetic seal pups. An abundance of young animals and their many predators set the stage for dramatic events and amazing photo opportunities. This is also the best time for incredible encounters with whales of all kinds.

Our Polar Professionals

On shore and on the water, you will be accompanied by some of the most experienced guides in the polar regions. Our expedition staff undergo rigorous training to ensure our safety record remains among the best in the industry. From our photographers to our certified kayak guides, our team of experts is always on hand to make your expedition safe, exciting, entertaining, and educational.

Christian Bruttel | Expedition Leader

Christian is originally from the Black Forest in the south of Germany. In 2012, after studying to be a teacher and traveling around the world in pursuit of action and adventure, he settled in the High Arctic community of Longyearbyen, in Svalbard, where he trained to be a polar guide. Since then, Christian has worked throughout the Arctic and Antarctic as an adventure guide, polar historian, and expedition leader.

Aaron Strahlke | Expedition Leader

Aaron is an experienced polar guide and geologist from Berlin, Germany. He earned his master's degree from the Heriot-Watt University in Edinburgh, Scotland. His expertise is in soft rock geology, tectonics, and geophysics. He is also an expert in geophysics, formation evaluation, geomechanics, and sedimentology. Since 2017, he has been traveling to the Arctic and Antarctic, hoping to spark people's interest in geology.

Sergey Shirokiy | Expedition Leader

Sergey pursued his history studies at the University of Arkhangelsk. From 2011 to 2017, he served as the head of tourism for the Russian Arctic national park before relocating to Barentsburg in 2017. With extensive experience, he has been a tour guide on expedition vessels in both the Arctic and Antarctic for many years.

Huw Lewis-Jones | Expedition Leader

Huw is an experienced polar guide and historian of exploration, culture, photography, and the environment, with a Ph.D. from the University of Cambridge. He served as curator of the Scott Polar Research Institute and the National Maritime Museum in London. Huw regularly appears on television and radio as an expert on the history of polar exploration. His award-winning books have been published in 14 languages.

Falcon Scott | Historian

Falcon is a British polar historian.
He is the only grandson of Captain Robert Falcon Scott, legendary leader of the Terra Nova Antarctic Expedition. Falcon's many polar pursuits include capturing the unrivaled beauty of Antarctica with his art.

Marta Duch | Expedition Assistant

Marta, from Barcelona, has been going to sea since the age of 8. She was part of the 2004 Spanish Olympic sailing team in Athens, and she joined the 2013 Pakea Bizkaia sailing expedition to Antarctica.

Page is a professional photographer and videographer from the United States, who studied Photography at the University of Bonn. He has logged over one million nautical miles on ships throughout the world since 1999. His nature and wildlife photography appears regularly in German and American publications.

Serena Yuan | Ornithologist

After studying at McGill University in Montreal, Serena worked as a translator for tour groups to Antarctica. She made her passion a profession and got a degree in biology. Specializing in sea birds and especially the albatross, she considers the Southern Ocean her second home.

Chad Burtt | Expedition Guide

In 1999, Chad went to Antarctica as a member of the team filming the award-winning historically accurate IMAX movie about the iconic survival story of Ernest Shackleton's 1914 Endurance expedition.

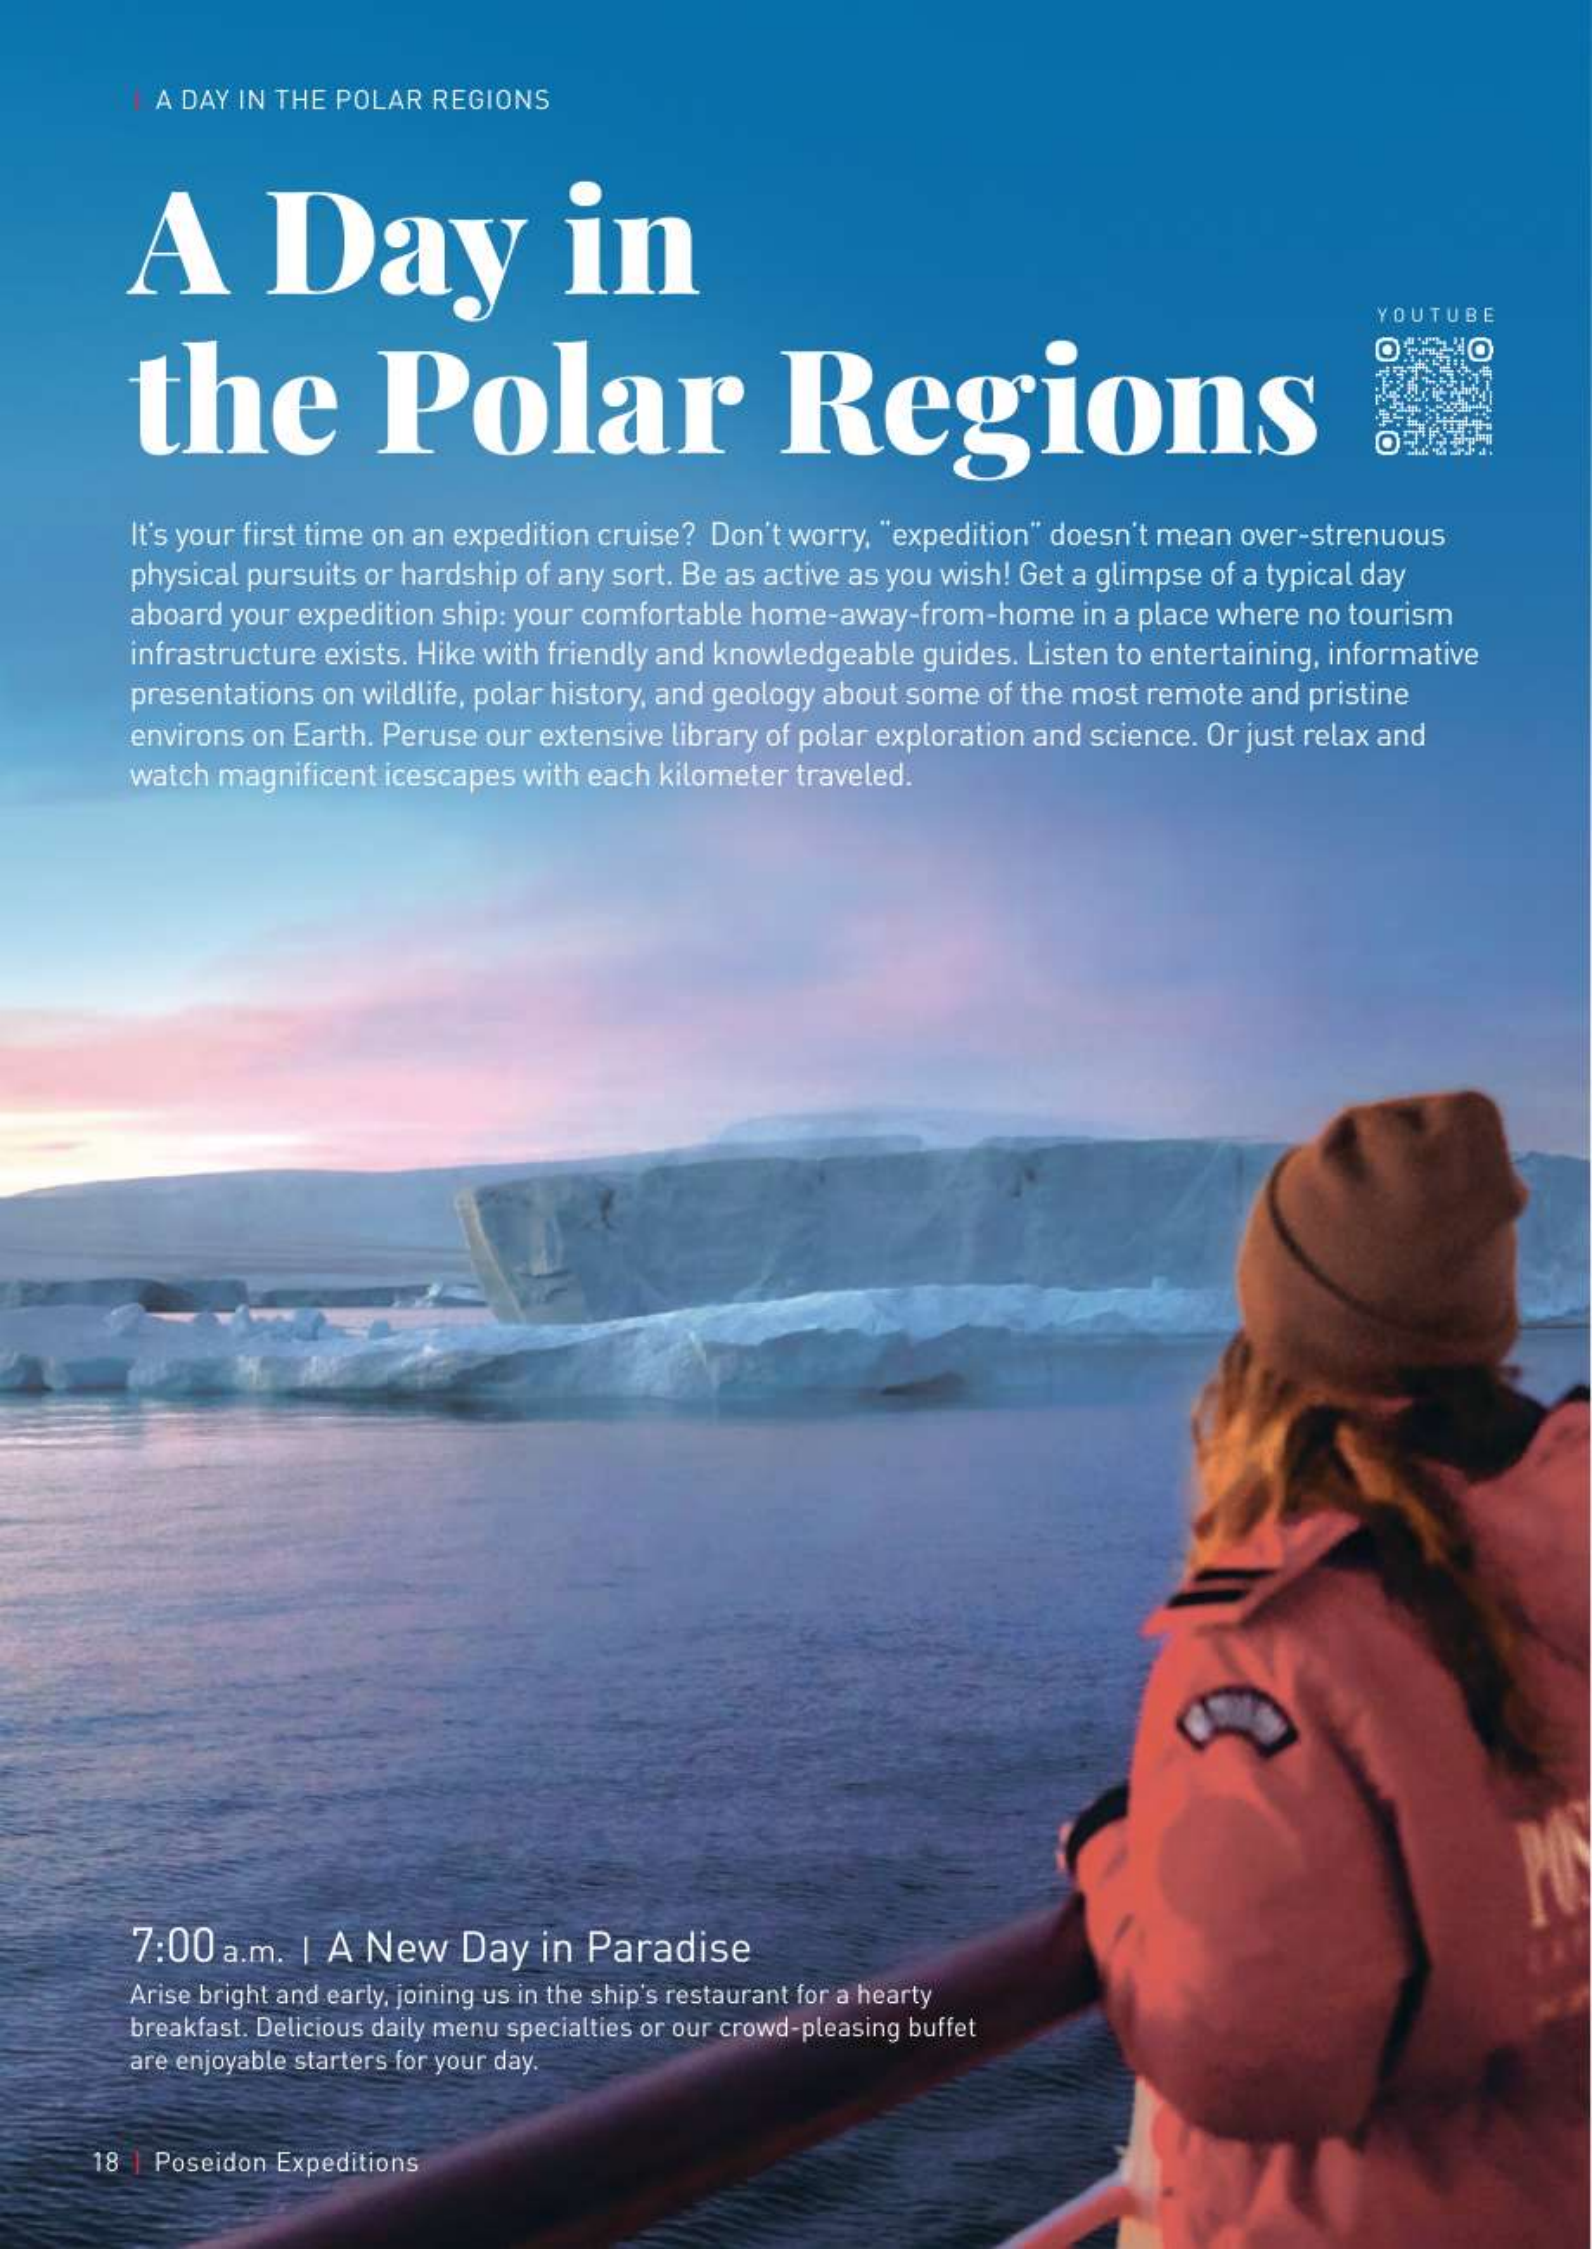

Eloisa Berrier | Marine Biologist, Kayak Master

Eloisa grew up around water in Argentina, where she studied southern right whales and earned a marine biology degree. Since 2008, she has been leading kayaking expeditions in Patagonia, Antarctica, and the High Arctic.

A Day in the Polar Regions

YOUTUBE

It's your first time on an expedition cruise? Don't worry, "expedition" doesn't mean over-strenuous physical pursuits or hardship of any sort. Be as active as you wish! Get a glimpse of a typical day aboard your expedition ship: your comfortable home-away-from-home in a place where no tourism infrastructure exists. Hike with friendly and knowledgeable guides. Listen to entertaining, informative presentations on wildlife, polar history, and geology about some of the most remote and pristine environs on Earth. Peruse our extensive library of polar exploration and science. Or just relax and watch magnificent icescapes with each kilometer traveled.

7:00 a.m. | A New Day in Paradise

Arise bright and early, joining us in the ship's restaurant for a hearty breakfast. Delicious daily menu specialties or our crowd-pleasing buffet are enjoyable starters for your day.

9:00 a.m. | Zodiac Cruise

Suit up and climb aboard a Zodiac boat for a stunning encounter with the magnificent polar landscape and wildlife. We'll provide the parka and boots, but don't forget your camera!

12:00 p.m. | BBQ on Deck

It's lunchtime! Enjoy delectable entrées prepared by our chef in the comfortable restaurant, or is it BBQ day on the open deck?

2:00 p.m. | Landing

Back to exploring! Shuttle ashore via our fleet of nimble Zodiacs for hiking, photography, and wildlife viewing. Our expert expedition staff will answer your questions and take you to the best vantage spots to experience unique wildlife and scenery.

4:00 p.m. | Sea Kayaking

Reserve your spot well in advance so you can take advantage of our sea kayak club. These extremely safe and reliable boats extend your exploration into hidden coves and inlets even the expedition ship can't access. Paddle at your own speed with our experienced guides.

7:00 p.m. | Recap and Briefing

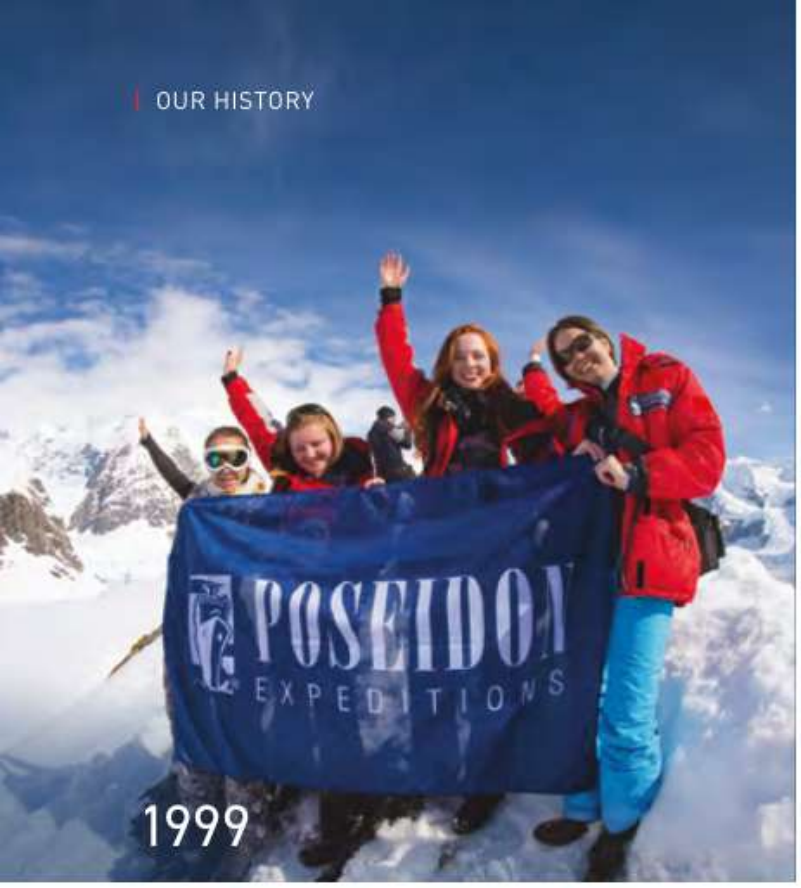

Each evening, we gather in the Oceanus Lounge to reflect on the day's events and discuss what to expect tomorrow, followed by a relaxing and festive dinner in the restaurant.

Our History

Providing guests with an authentic polar experience is at the heart of everything we do. For 28 years, we've been offering unique adventures into the polar regions, initially to the North Pole aboard icebreakers. Poseidon has successfully conducted over 35 cruises to the 90° north, the top of the world!

However, since 2022, we've paused our North Pole icebreaker programs and have focused on exploring extraordinary destinations like Antarctica, South Georgia, Svalbard, Greenland, and the wild coastlines of the British Isles.

Let's take a moment to reflect on this incredible 28-year journey we've shared — full of discovery, adventure, and unforgettable moments!
